

*The King's University Alumni Advisory Council
Self-Nomination Form*

This application is for general leadership on The King's University Alumni Advisory Council for the 2022-2023 academic year. Service on this council begins August 2022 and concludes in May 2023. The quantity and type of leadership roles available have yet to be determined.

Applications for service will be accepted through July 1, 2022 and should be submitted with attached documentation to alumni@tku.edu Submission of a completed application doesn't result in automatic acceptance as a member of the Alumni Advisory Council (AAC). The King's University retains the right to select members of the AAC.

The Alumni Advisory Board exists to develop and foster the relationship between The King's University and its alumni. It is the duty of the council to maintain an active role in meeting the needs of the alumni body, while demonstrating leadership on behalf of their peers. The council will work in unity to further The King's University, keeping the heart of what God is doing as the central part of service.

It is the vision of The King's University Alumni Association to connect graduates and former students from all locations for the purpose of sharing the life-changing education at TKU with others. We encourage graduates from all campuses and the online community to apply in representation of our diverse population. Participation in events and council meetings can be facilitated virtually to include those in other locations.

Example duties tasked to the Alumni Advisory Council might include:

- Creating and implementing council by-laws, vision statement, etc.
- Coordinating alumni events and participation
- Communication planning and networking opportunities for alumni
- Representation at certain TKU sponsored events, in person and/or online

Strong candidates for service would include those who:

- Have graduated from The King's University
- Demonstrate a passion to share their skills and expertise with others
- Believe in the advancement of the kingdom of God through The King's University Office of Advancement
- Show a dedication to the service of others through previous volunteer opportunities
- Have a spirit to unite others together through genuine connection
- Be willing to participate in a team dynamic
- Have the availability to serve and coordinate participation at events such as those listed below
